Xerion Avionix would like to consider your company as a Xerion Avionix Authorized Dealer. When submitting the application, please include a copy of your business license, A&P or IA certifications and any other pertinent licenses and certificates with this application.

What airport is your company located? _____

Please specify the type of shop you operate: (i.e. MRO, FBO, avionics, etc) _____

How long have you been in business? _____

What other engine instrumentation products do you current sell/promote?:
(Please be specific, if a competitor's product is sold, this will not disqualify as a possible dealer)

---

What is the traffic through your shop on any given week? _____

What about the Xerion Avionix product line attracts you to selling/promoting the products?

How do you intend to promote and sell Xerion products? _____

---

Xerion Avionix Authorized Dealers can only promote/sell the products as an "installed pricing" product. Authorized dealers may not act as a distributor and may not sell the product as "cash and carry". This is done to protect the dealer network as well as the customer. Do you have any comments on this business practice, and if so, what?

---

How many systems do you believe you can/will sell and install per month? _____

Have you read the product installation manuals available on the Xerion website? _____

How many hours do you estimate it will take to install the average system? _____
